ATCHISON, April 23.—A correspondent of the Daily Champion, writing from Arkansas City, in Southwestern Kansas, says that a man named Thomp-son arrived there on the twentieth instant, who states that on the eleventh instant, he was robbed by a band of Indians near Medicine Lodge creek, and his four companions killed. The party consisted of himself, John and William Mitchell, and William and James Falkerton, who were recently from Macoupin county, Illinois. They arrived at Medi-cine Lodge creek, near the sonthern line of the State, on the eighth instant, having with them a span of horses, wagon, camp equipage, and about one thousand dollars in money. On Friday, the eleventh instant, Thompson was a quarter of a mile from camp, when he saw three or four hundred Indians surround it. The Huntsville Advocate is for sale.
